

AMANZE CHIKAODINAKA IHEAGWAM

amanzeciheagwam@icloud.com

Education/Training: B.Eng. Mechanical Engineering, Bayero University Kano;

Well Completions/Interventions/Sand Control Systems – Petroleum Academy, Texas

Well Applications & Designs – EHEC Dubai, UAE

Petroleum Engineering Applications Technical Support Systems – Sub-Saharan Training Centre, Cape Town, South Africa.

Current Designation: Principal Consultant (Well Completion Services)

Born in Nassarawa, in the ancient city of Kano, Amanze is a seasoned Engineer with over 15 years technical experience with inception from Geo and Agro technics, preceding the Energy, Oil and Gas industry.

He possesses numerous Quality, Safety, Environment and Occupational Health certifications and licenses.

He has attained global expertise in his career and is deep-rooted across several ethnic backgrounds and well versed amongst other faiths.

He is a distinguished member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers International (S.P.E) and a certified member of the International Well Control Forum (I.W.C.F).

He is a keen basketball player and enjoys cycling and research work.

He is happily married with children.