

PROFILE: SADIQ SULEIMAN ABDULLAHI

sdq3@yahoo.com, sdq4@hotmail.com

Education/Training: OND Applied & Field Psychology, B.Sc Economics, MBA (Entrepreneurial Management), Harvard Kennedy School of Government, Dale Carnegie of Georgia, Public Service Institute Nigeria.

Current Designation: Team Lead, Strategic Planning (Corporate Planning & Development Unit), Office of the Executive Secretary, Petroleum Equalisation Fund (Management) Board, Abuja - FCT, Nigeria.

Born in the commercial capital of Kano in 1977, Sadiq has a combined 17 years experience in both public and private sectors. A seasoned development manager, his core competencies cut across various fields that include but not limited to; Strategic Planning, Project Management, Investment/Transaction Advisory, Relationship Management, Value Chain Analysis/Management as well as Human Capital Development.

Sadiq has served in various capacities at both State and Federal levels. Highlights of his career include; strategic planning, and corporate restructuring for private organisations, as well as several organs of government, targeted at building capacity and accelerating development. Between 2009 and 2015, he served as Director General, as well as Special Adviser to an Executive Governor and Federal Minister respectively. Sadiq has also served on several advisory, and implementation committees. His hobbies are travelling, horse riding, informative literature and playing basketball. He is happily married with children.