

Muhammad Hamisu Haruna

hamisuharuna@yahoo.com

Muhammad Hamisu Haruna was born on 11th October, 1976. He attended Warure Special Primary School and Government Grammer School, Garko before proceeding to Federal Government College, Kano.

He is a graduate and Masters Degree holder of Hausa Linguistics studying the physical sounds of human speech (Hausa speaking Igbo's as a case study), dealing with the processes of their physiological production, auditory reception, and neurophysiological perception, and their representation by written symbols using a mathematical approach.

Hamisu is a member of the Association of Nigerian Authors (ANA) with an anthology of poetry in the making. He belongs to the Association of Fiction and Non-Fiction Writers (AFINON).

He currently works with First Bank of Nigeria Plc and is also the MD of Arifai General Enterprises Ltd (AGE) with specialty in shoe making, interior designs, paint work and poultry farming.

His hobbies are reading, writing and aiding others to learn.

Hamisu is happily married to two wives and has five children.